

its all about music and things, you will choose a instrument and teacher will tell you how to play it, and sometimes they will make a group to see who groups win, and you will feel happy, because its really fun.

I liked the <sup>Brundibar</sup> Opera at the Sage because I liked the singing and the story. The singing sounded really professional and I like how it's very colorful. My favorite part was when it was night time and at the end.

MILK 4 MUMMY

I liked the opera because at the start everyone was ignoring the children and then at the end everyone joined them.

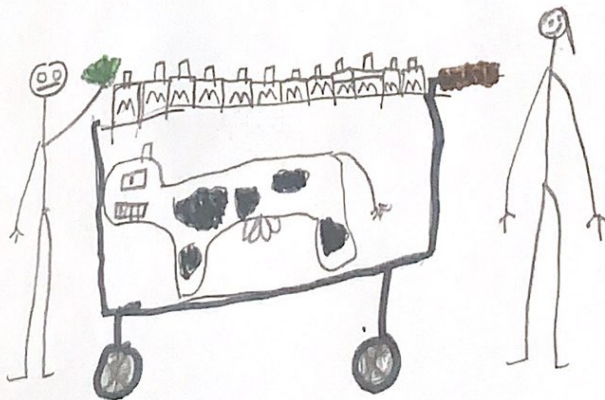

I think that the Brundibar, Opera was very fun to watch because they acted out the holocaust. I also liked how at the end they made signs with cardboard and creative stuff.

I thought the Brundage Opera was courteous and the music told a part of the story each time I found it amazing!

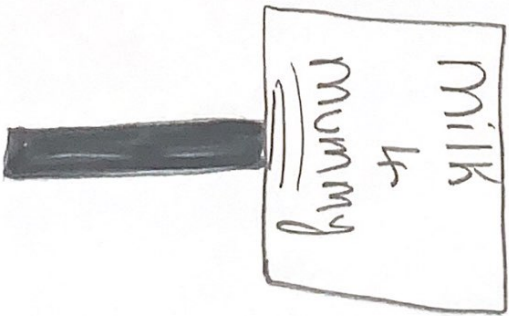

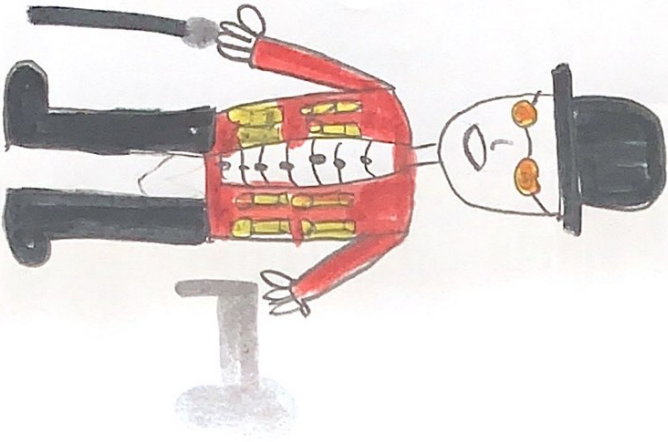

I liked that it was colorful / fantastic / musical and more I liked Bundibor

that it wasn't longer and it was their last opera. I think it was amazing and I wished we'd more music themed activities. I loved how the main characters were despicable but then they ~~love~~ <sup>appreciate</sup> Bundibor

I thought that the opera at the Sage because of the singing and the name of the opera was called Brundibar and what happened was there were two sisters who needed milk for their mum because she was <sup>sick</sup> and the two sisters didn't have any <sup>money</sup> and they were singing on the street and got money and they made signs and after that the rattle man got annoyed and said come back for next time . . .

The Brundibar was Jan Goubic the colors were Bright I liked
When they all sang at the end.

I liked everything I saw, I liked the introduction, the performance, the colors, the singing, the music, and etc.
And I would really like to go back there again.

I liked it alot, My favorite character was the "rap scallion", The Brudiker Opera havent seen it, Only complaint is that it was too short I wanted more bad guy moments
