

Noam Pnini

Israeli Soprano Noam Pnini graduated with a Master of Music from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, London. Noam is also an alumna of the Israel Vocal Arts Institute, Jerusalem Music Centre, the Köln Music Academy, Austrian-American Mozart Academy and has participated in workshops with British Youth Opera and the National Opera Studio in London.

Her operatic experiences include Tytania (Midsummer Night's Dream); Nannetta (Falstaff); Mademoiselle Silberklang (Der Schauspieldirektor), Semele (Semele); Drusilla (L'incoronazione di Poppea); Belinda (Dido and Aeneas); Constance (Dialogues des Carmélites); Genovieffa (Sour Angelica) and Téléaire (Castor et Pollux).

Noam is also particularly committed to contemporary music and has collaborated with several composers on new works. In June 2022 she won the Tracey Chadwell Memorial Award for her performance of Five Eliot Landscapes by Thomas Adès.

Noam has been generously supported by America-Israel Cultural Foundation (2018-2024); Ronen Foundation (2015-2023), Guildhall School of Music and Drama (2019-2022); Buchmann-Mehta School of Music; Tel-Aviv University (2019); and the Buchman-Heyman Foundation (2017).